

Policy on Service Animals

Pursuant to the Americans with Disability Act (ADA), and federal regulations at 28 C.F.R. 36.301 et seq., it is Loon Mountain Recreation Corp, mountain policy that service animals (which as defined under the ADA can only be dogs or miniature horses) are not permitted on open chairlifts at the resort during the ski season, based on the legitimate safety requirements determined by Loon Mountain Recreation Corp regarding the safety of others guest and employees, as well as for the safety of the service animal itself. In addition, Loon Mountain Recreation Corp does not allow service animals to accompany guest skiing, snowboarding, uphill travel activities, mountain biking, and snow tubing on mountain trails and ski runs, and all skiing and snowboarding terrain at Loon Mountain Recreation Corp, again based on the Loon Mountain Recreation Corp's legitimate safety requirements concerning the safety of other guest, our employees, and the service animal itself. This policy of restricting service animals on both chairlifts and accompanying guests while using Loon Mountain Recreation Corp's skiing terrain also applies equally to all other animals, including pets and emotional support animals.

Service animals are permitted on the Loon Mountain Recreation Corp Tram/Gondola when it is open to the public, and guests with service animals who access the mountain via the Gondola will download back to the Loon Mountain Recreation Corp base area via the Gondola as well. If a guest with a service animal seeks to visit an area of the mountain that is not accessible via the Gondola or the Gondola is not in operation to the public Loon Mountain Recreation Corp will provide alternative transport to the venue on the mountain, through either an on-mountain vehicle (snowmobile, ATV, truck, or other vehicle). Depending on the mountain location, weather conditions, and other variables. Loon Mountain Recreation Corp recommends that guest provide as much advanced notice as possible when seeking a unique accessibility to a location or venue on the mountain that may not be accessible via chairlifts or the Tram/Gondola.
